

→ Why not do this online?

Instead of filling in a form, why not log on to CARE Super's MemberOnline facility and do it all online? It is totally secure and very straightforward. Call the CARE SuperLine – 1300 360 149 – if you have never used MemberOnline and we will give you your password. When you log on, click on the 'investment' link, then 'buy/sell shares'. It's that easy!

3. Member declaration

You must sign and date this form.

I acknowledge that:

- CARE Super will not implement these instructions if I do not meet the eligibility criteria
- I have read the CARE Super Member Investment Guide
- CARE Super is not responsible for my choice of investment strategy
- After 1pm on the Friday after my transaction instructions have been received by CARE Super, I will not be able to revoke these instructions
- I have appointed the Trustee and the custodian of the CARE Super ASX 200 option to sign any necessary broker sponsorship agreement on my behalf and provide any necessary details of my membership in order to implement my instruction
- I have appointed the custodian to register the shares and give instructions on my behalf in relation to rights issues, buy-back offers, voting and the like
- CARE Super can provide me with general information but cannot give me investment advice, and that the CARE Super Member Investment Guide is only a general guide and not a substitute for professional investment advice
- By making broker research information available, CARE Super is not soliciting me to buy or sell any stock. The broker preparing these reports has not taken into account my investment objectives, financial situation or particular needs
- If more than one ASX 200 Application Form is received in the same week, the instructions contained in the ASX 200 Application Form last received before that week's deadline will apply
- If my employer is a stockbroker, I have a Referral Agreement signed by my employer in order for me to comply with section 991F(3) of the Corporations Act 2001
- The Trustee is not responsible for any delays in implementing member instructions
- The Trustee reserves the right to trade on other days in the event that volumes, market illiquidity or stock suspensions require this to occur
- In the case of an intraday suspension, instructions will be implemented when trade resumes
- The Trustee is the only party able to instruct the broker and the custodian to the ASX 200 Shares Investment Option. I will be in contravention of the terms of the ASX 200 Shares Investment Option if I attempt to instruct the broker or share registry
- I will be liable for any calls on stock that are not fully paid at the time of the initial order – for example stock that is paid in instalments
- Partial claims can only be made for money in Member Investment options, except the ASX 200 Shares Investment Option. In the event of a partial claim, I must retain the greater of: (i) 10% of my total account balance, or (ii) $1500 in a Member Investment option, other than the ASX 200 Shares Investment Option
- In the event there is a shortfall between the amount I am applying to claim and
 - the money in my Member Investment options, excluding the ASX 200 Shares Investment Option, available to be claimed, or
 - the money in my Member Investment options, excluding the ASX 200 Shares Investment Option, available to be claimed after the redemption of those stocks I have nominated to sell CARE Super will only pay the maximum amount allowed in accordance with the paragraph above.
- If I am in an overall net capital loss position, a tax benefit of 10% of this net capital loss will be attributed to my account, irrespective of the period of investment in the shareholdings. The Trustee reserves the right to vary this if current capital gains tax rules change.
