- You might pay more tax on your super contributions. Sometimes you may be able to claim this tax back, however time limits and other rules may apply.
- CareSuper may not be able to accept contributions for you
- You may pay more tax than you have to when you claim your superannuation benefits
- It may be more difficult for CareSuper to locate or consolidate all your superannuation benefits.

4. IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Cheques can take up to 3 working days to be allocated to your account (after we have received it together with your completed form).

Your eligibility to make certain types of contributions may depend on your total super balance. If you reach these limits, there will be restrictions on the types and amounts of contributions you can make in the following financial year. More information is available at caresuper.com.au/knowyourlimits.

CLAIMING A TAX DEDUCTION

If you intend to claim a tax deduction on your contribution, you'll also need to complete a Notice of intent to claim or vary a deduction form available at ato.gov.au, and return it to CareSuper before the earliest of the following:

- Lodging your tax return for the year in which you've made the relevant contribution
- The end of the following financial year.

For more information on claiming a tax deduction, call 1300 360 149.

You may not be able to submit a Notice of intent to claim or vary a deduction if you have made a withdrawal from your account. Contact us before you request a benefit payment or rollover.

There is a limit (or cap) to the amount of contributions you can make without incurring additional tax. If you exceed the cap you may have to pay extra tax. Visit ato.gov.au to find out more.
